Spring 2022

When I walk in, the lights are bright and fluorescent. Maybe I should bring a hat or sunglasses!

This is my Museum. We come to the museum to learn about history and the water. When I visit they even have backpacks with toys! I can hear singing when I am in the exhibit hall. Maybe I should bring noise cancelling headphones or earplugs!

I am so excited that I can do my scavenger hunt's again and play with the toys! My museum also has a tour I can listen to, read, or watch! They say I just need to use my smart device camera to scan a code.

This is the teacher at my museum. Her name is Miss Katy.

Sometimes there will be other people helping with youth programs. They are nice too! They can all help me if I have a problem at the museum.

My museum has rules. I need to use my inside voice and my walking feet. I have to be careful around the artifacts because they are old so I have to eat and drink before coming to visit. If I get tired or need to use a wheelchair they even have one I can use!

There are bathrooms at my museum. I have to find the NC State flag to find them. They even have accessible stalls and hand dryers. Sometimes the noise scares me, so I use the paper towels on the counter.
